C1: SUPPORT FOR FEES

The level of fee which full-time 2011/12 cohort students who will be continuing students on designated higher education courses in 2017/18 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study. Students continuing to study in Northern Ireland will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £4,030 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution.

Students who normally live in Wales and study on a designated course at an institution in the United Kingdom which is charging variable tuition fees, will be able to take out a non-income assessed tuition fee loan to cover some or all of these fees (depending on how much they are charged and how much they wish to borrow). For students who normally live in Wales and are studying at an English or Northern Ireland university or college that is not charging variable tuition fees, the tuition fee chargeable could be any amount up to a maximum of £1,380 and £1,555 respectively and students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Students who normally live in Wales and study in Scotland will be charged £1,820 a year for most courses, except medicine where the fee is £2,895 a year). The charges will apply to all four years of Scottish degree courses. Students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Maximum Fee Support in Special Cases

The maximum tuition charge payable, and therefore the maximum tuition loan entitlement, for courses, including sandwich courses, where a student spends a significant time during the year away from his or her institution will be £1,725 where the student attends an institution in Wales, Scotland or England, and £2,005 where the student attends an institution in Northern Ireland.

C2: SUPPORT FOR LIVING COSTS

In addition to the fee loan, continuing full-time 2011/12 cohort students will be able to apply for:

- (1) A means-tested Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs of up to £5,780;
- (2) The basic student loan for living costs shown in Section A, 75% of which will not be subject to income assessment.
- (3) Certain students will be potentially eligible for a Special Support Grant instead of the Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs. These students include those who (a) have dependent children and do not have a partner; (b) have dependent children and their partner is also a full-time student; or (c) are eligible for certain specified disability benefits.

For new entrants in academic year 2011/12, the Welsh National Bursary was integrated into the HE statutory support system as an integral part of the Welsh Government Learning and Special Support Grants. The Welsh Government's statutory student support arrangements for living costs are for Welsh domiciled students only (namely students who are ordinarily resident in Wales). Institutions are no longer required to pay a minimum national bursary to new entrants from 2011/12 but can continue to make their own institutional awards.

TABLES C3 & C4 – AMOUNTS OF WELSH GOVERNMENT LEARNING GRANT (OR SPECIAL SUPPORT GRANT) AVAILABLE FOR ILLUSTRATIVE LEVELS OF HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Table C3 applies to students who are undertaking full time courses including full-time initial teacher training (ITT) courses, and who are eligible for the Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs. Table C4 applies to students who are undertaking full time courses, including full-time initial teacher training (ITT) courses, and who are eligible for the Special Support Grant;

The support available for ITT courses starting on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years will depend on whether it is undertaken on a full time or part-time basis. The Welsh Government Learning Grant and Special Support Grant are fully means-tested for all students who start their studies on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years.

Students who start a part-time course of ITT on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years including the flexible provision provided by the Open University in Wales are eligible for the standard part-time student support package set out at section F (part-time support).

TABLE C5 – HOUSEHOLD CONTRIBUTION SCALE

Table C5 sets out the assessed household contribution that continuing full-time 2011/12 cohort students will be assessed for in 2017/18, for illustrative levels of household income.

SECTION D: SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO FULL-TIME STUDENTS WHO WILL BE CONTINUING 2010/11 COHORT STUDENTS IN 2017/18

Note: This section applies to all full-time entrants.

D1: SUPPORT FOR FEES

The level of fee which full-time 2010/11 cohort students who will be continuing students to higher education in 2017/18 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study. Students continuing to study in Wales or England will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £3,465 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution. Students continuing to study in Northern Ireland will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £4,030 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution.

Students who normally live in Wales and study on a designated course at an institution in the United Kingdom which is charging variable tuition fees, will be able to take out a non-income assessed tuition fee loan to cover some or all of these fees (depending on how much they are charged and how much they wish to borrow). For students who normally live in Wales and are studying on a designated course at an institution in England or Northern Ireland that is not charging variable tuition fees, the tuition fee chargeable could be any amount up to a maximum of £1,380 and £1,555 respectively and students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Students who normally live in Wales and study in Scotland will be charged £1,820 a year for most courses, except medicine where the fee is £2,895 a year. The charges will apply to all four years of Scottish degree courses. Students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Maximum Fee Rates in Special Cases

The maximum tuition charge payable, and therefore the maximum tuition loan entitlement, for courses, including sandwich courses, where a student spends a significant time during the year away from his or her institution will be £1,725 where the student attends an institution in Wales or England, and £2,005 where the student attends an institution in Northern Ireland, and £640* where the student attends an institution in Scotland.

*This figure may be subject to change.

D2: SUPPORT FOR LIVING COSTS

In addition to the fee loan, continuing full-time 2010/11 cohort students will be able to apply for:

- (1) A means-tested Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs of up to £5,161;
- (2) A means-tested bursary. Students with a household income of £18,370 or less, on a designated course at an institution in Wales could apply for a minimum bursary of £347 from their institution. Students who are eligible for the full £5,161 Welsh Government Learning Grant or Special Support Grant for living costs, who are attending a university or college in Northern Ireland, and who are being charged the maximum £4,030 fee, may be entitled to a bursary from their institution.
- (3) The basic student loan for living costs shown in Section A, 75% of which will not be subject to income assessment.
- (4) Certain students will be potentially eligible for a Special Support Grant instead of the Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs. These students include those who (a) have dependent children and do not have a partner; (b) have dependent children and their partner is also a full-time student; or (c) are eligible for certain specified disability benefits.

The support available for ITT courses starting on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years will depend on whether it is undertaken on a full-time or part-time basis. The Welsh Government Learning Grant and Special Support Grant are fully means-tested for all students who start their studies on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years.

Students who start a part-time course of ITT on or after 1 September 2010 including the flexible provision provided by the Open University in Wales are eligible for the standard part-time student support package set out at section F (part-time support).

TABLE D5 – HOUSEHOLD CONTRIBUTION SCALE
