Part B

Financial information for tax year 2015-16

If your household income has permanently dropped since 2015-16

To be eligible to get EMA payments your total household income amount must be either:
• £20,817 or less; or
• £23,077 or less and there’s more than one young person who qualifies for Child Benefit in the household.

If in tax year 2015-16 you earned over this threshold, but since, your income has dropped below it you can be considered for EMA using your current household income.

We need proof of your current household income; you need to send us:
• your latest Universal Credit Award letter; or
• your latest Income Support letter; or
• your pay slips for last 3 months; or
• If self assessed – a letter from your accountant on headed paper that states your last three months income. This letter must be signed and dated.

And proof to show that your household income has permanently dropped; send us:
• your P45; or
• your redundancy letter; or
• a letter from your employer on headed paper that explains the permanent drop in income. This letter must be signed and dated.

2.4 Income from salary or wages

If as part of your salary or wages for tax year 2015-16 you received tips and other payments that did not show on your P60, you still need to include this figure when providing your total income amount earned from employment.

2.6 Income from savings and investments

To make this question easier to answer, we have split it up into four separate parts. You may or may not have received income from every part, just tell us about the ones you did.

Only tell us about the amount of interest/income you gained from savings and investments during tax year 2015-16, not the actual amount of savings or invested sums you had.

2.7 Total interest from UK banks, building societies and unit trusts

This is gross UK interest (before tax has been deducted).

You must include interest you receive on bank, building society and other savings accounts unless it is specifically non-taxable, for example, a non-taxable Individual Savings Account (ISA) etc.

If you did not declare any savings and investment income to HMRC, refer to your bank or building society statements for these figures.
