Dear colleague

THE WELSH GOVERNMENT

Loan, Grant and Fee Rates for Full and Part-Time Higher Education Study in Academic Year 2013/14

Memorandum: Support Available under the The Education (Student Support) (Wales) Regulations 2012

All figures shown are in pounds.

This Memorandum describes the main and supplementary loan and grant rates, the contribution scales and the tuition fee rates for the 2013/14 academic year. Guidance for students will be available online and as hard copy via the Student Finance Wales booklet entitled "A guide to financial support for higher education students in 2013/14" due to be issued early in 2013. The Education (Student Support) (Wales) Regulations 2012 ("the Student Support Regulations") are scheduled to be made in December 2012 and come into force in January 2013.

The figures shown in this Memorandum relate to students who started their course on or after 1st September 1998 (apart from those who have exceptionally been treated as having started in the 1997/98 academic year), and who are eligible for loans and for income-assessed support under the Student Support Regulations.

SECTION B: SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO FULL-TIME 2012/13 COHORT STUDENTS IN 2013/14

B1: SUPPORT FOR FEES

The level of fee which full-time students who are 2012/13 cohort students on courses of higher education in 2013/14 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study. Students who normally live in Wales and study at a publicly funded UK university or college, will be able to apply for a non means-tested fee loan of up to £3,575, to cover all or the first part of their tuition fee. These students will also be eligible to apply for a non means-tested fee grant of up to £5,425 to cover the difference between the maximum £3,575 fee loan and the actual fee charged by the University or College (up to a maximum of £9,000). The non-means tested fee grant does not have to be repaid.

Full-time students who will be 2012/13 cohort students in higher education in 2013/14 studying specifically designated courses at private institutions within the UK will have access to a non means-tested fee loan of up to £6,000 to cover all or part of the costs of their tuition fee.

Maximum Fee Support in Special Cases

The maximum tuition fee support available will be reduced in relation to certain courses, including sandwich courses where a student spends a significant amount of time away from their institution and courses provided in conjunction with overseas institutions where a student spends a significant amount of time abroad. The reduction also applies in relation to certain courses of initial teacher training and the final academic years of other courses which require reduced levels of study. The tuition fee support available for such courses will be up to £4,500 for those provided at publicly funded institutions (non means-tested fee loan of up to £1,780 and non means-tested fee grant of up to £2,720 to cover the difference between the maximum £1,780 fee loan and the actual fee charged by the University or College) and a non means-tested fee loan of up to £3,000 for those provided at private institutions.

B2: SUPPORT FOR LIVING COSTS

In addition to the fee support detailed in B1, full-time 2012/13 cohort students will be able to apply for:

- (1) A means-tested Assembly Learning Grant for living costs of up to £5,161;
- (2) The basic student loan for living costs shown in Section A, 75% of which will not be subject to income assessment.
- (3) Certain students will be potentially eligible for a Special Support Grant instead of the Assembly Learning Grant for living costs. These students include those who (a) have dependent children and do not have a partner; (b) have dependent children and their partner is also a full-time student; or (c) are eligible for certain specified disability benefits.

TABLES B3 & B4 – AMOUNTS OF ASSEMBLY LEARNING GRANT (OR SPECIAL SUPPORT GRANT) AVAILABLE FOR ILLUSTRATIVE LEVELS OF HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Table B3 applies to students who are undertaking full-time courses including full-time initial teacher training (ITT) courses, and who are eligible for the Assembly Learning Grant for living costs. Table B4 applies to students who are undertaking full-time courses, including full-time initial teacher training (ITT) courses, and who are eligible for the Special Support Grant.

The support available for ITT courses starting on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years will depend on whether it is undertaken on a full-time or part-time basis. The Assembly Learning Grant and Special Support Grant are fully means-tested for all students who start their studies on or after 1 September 2010.

Students who start a part-time course of ITT on or after 1 September 2010 including the flexible provision provided by the Open University in Wales are eligible for the standard part-time student support package set out at section H (part-time support).

TABLE B5 – HOUSEHOLD CONTRIBUTION SCALE

Table B5 sets out the assessed household contribution that full-time entrants will be assessed for in 2013/14, for illustrative levels of household income.

For details of other loan and grant support that is available to full-time new entrants, see section G.

SECTION C: SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO FULL-TIME STUDENTS WHO WILL BE CONTINUING 2011/12 COHORT STUDENTS IN 2013/14

Note: This section applies to all full time entrants, irrespective of whether they will be at publicly funded or privately funded institutions.

C1: SUPPORT FOR FEES

The level of fee which full-time 2011/12 cohort students who will be continuing students on designated higher education courses in 2013/14 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study. Students continuing to study in Wales or England will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £3,465 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution. Students continuing to study in Northern Ireland will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £3,575 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution.

Students who normally live in Wales and study at a University or College in the United Kingdom which is charging variable tuition fees, will be able to take out a non-income assessed tuition fee loan to cover some or all of these fees (depending on how much they are charged and how much they wish to borrow). For students who normally live in Wales and are studying at an English or Northern Ireland university or college that is not charging variable tuition fees, the tuition fee chargeable could be any amount up to a maximum of £1,380 and £1,425 respectively and students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Students who normally live in Wales and study in Scotland will be charged £1,820 a year for most courses, except medicine where the fee is £2,895 a year). The charges will apply to all four years of Scottish degree courses. Students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Maximum Fee Support in Special Cases

The maximum tuition charge payable, and therefore the maximum tuition loan entitlement, for courses, including sandwich courses, where a student spends a significant time during the year away from his or her institution will be £1,725 where the student attends an institution in Wales, Scotland or England, and £1,780 where the student attends an institution in Northern Ireland.

C2: SUPPORT FOR LIVING COSTS

In addition to the fee loan, continuing full-time 2011/12 cohort students will be able to apply for:

- (1) A means-tested Assembly Learning Grant for living costs of up to £5,780;
- (2) The basic student loan for living costs shown in Section A, 75% of which will not be subject to income assessment.
- (3) Certain students will be potentially eligible for a Special Support Grant instead of the Assembly Learning Grant for living costs. These students include those who (a) have dependent children and do not have a partner; (b) have dependent children and their partner is also a full-time student; or (c) are eligible for certain specified disability benefits.

For new entrants in academic year 2011/12, the Welsh National Bursary was integrated into the HE statutory support system as an integral part of the Assembly Learning and Special Support Grants. The Welsh Government's statutory student support arrangements for living costs are for Welsh domiciled students only (namely students who are ordinarily resident in Wales). Institutions are no longer required to pay a minimum national bursary to new entrants from 2011/12 but can continue to make their own institutional awards.

TABLES C3 & C4 – AMOUNTS OF ASSEMBLY LEARNING GRANT (OR SPECIAL SUPPORT GRANT) AVAILABLE FOR ILLUSTRATIVE LEVELS OF HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Table C3 applies to students who are undertaking full time courses including full-time initial teacher training (ITT) courses, and who are eligible for the Assembly Learning Grant for living costs. Table C4 applies to students who are undertaking full time courses, including full-time initial teacher training (ITT) courses, and who are eligible for the Special Support Grant;

The support available for ITT courses starting on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years will depend on whether it is undertaken on a full time or part-time basis. The Assembly Learning Grant and Special Support Grant are fully means-tested for all students who start their studies on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years.

Students who start a part-time course of ITT on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years including the flexible provision provided by the Open University in Wales are eligible for the standard part-time student support package set out at section H (part-time support).

TABLE C5 – HOUSEHOLD CONTRIBUTION SCALE

Table C5 sets out the assessed household contribution that continuing full-time 2011/12 cohort students will be assessed for in 2013/14, for illustrative levels of household income.

For details of other loan and grant support that is available to full-time new entrants, see section G.

SECTION D: SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO FULL-TIME STUDENTS WHO WILL BE CONTINUING 2010/11 COHORT STUDENTS IN 2013/14

Note: This section applies to all full-time entrants, irrespective of whether they will be at publicly funded or privately funded institutions.

D1: SUPPORT FOR FEES

The level of fee which full-time 2010/11 cohort students who will be continuing students to higher education in 2013/14 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study. Students continuing to study in Wales, or England will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £3,465 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution. Students continuing to study in Northern Ireland will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £3,575 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution.

Students who normally live in Wales and study at a University or College in the United Kingdom which is charging variable tuition fees, will be able to take out a non-income assessed tuition fee loan to cover some or all of these fees (depending on how much they are charged and how much they wish to borrow). For students who normally live in Wales and are studying at an English or Northern Ireland university or college that is not charging variable tuition fees, the tuition fee chargeable could be any amount up to a maximum of £1,380 and £1,425 respectively and students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Students who normally live in Wales and study in Scotland will be charged £1,820 a year for most courses, except medicine where the fee is £2,895 a year. The charges will apply to all four years of Scottish degree courses. Students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Maximum Fee Rates in Special Cases

The maximum tuition charge payable, and therefore the maximum tuition loan entitlement, for courses, including sandwich courses, where a student spends a significant time during the year away from his or her institution will be £1,725 where the student attends an institution in Wales or England, and £1,780 where the student attends an institution in Northern Ireland, and £640* where the student attends an institution in Scotland...

*This figure may be subject to change.

D2: SUPPORT FOR LIVING COSTS

In addition to the fee loan, continuing full-time 2010/11 cohort students will be able to apply for:

- (1) A means-tested Assembly Learning Grant for living costs of up to £5,161;
- (2) A means-tested bursary. Students with a household income of £18,370 or less, who are attending a university or college in Wales could apply for a minimum bursary of £347 from their institution. Students who are eligible for the full £5,161 Assembly Learning Grant or Special Support Grant for living costs, who are attending a university or college in Northern Ireland, and who are being charged the maximum £3,575 fee, may be entitled to a minimum bursary of £358 from their institution.
- (3) The basic student loan for living costs shown in Section A, 75% of which will not be subject to income assessment.
- (4) Certain students will be potentially eligible for a Special Support Grant instead of the Assembly Learning Grant for living costs. These students include those who (a) have dependent children and do not have a partner; (b) have dependent children and their partner is also a full-time student; or (c) are eligible for certain specified disability benefits.

TABLES D3 & D4 – AMOUNTS OF ASSEMBLY LEARNING GRANT (OR SPECIAL SUPPORT GRANT) AVAILABLE FOR ILLUSTRATIVE LEVELS OF HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Table D3 applies to students who are undertaking full-time courses including full-time initial teacher training (ITT) courses, and who are eligible for the Assembly Learning Grant for living costs. Table D4 applies to students who are undertaking full-time courses, including full-time initial teacher training (ITT) courses, and who are eligible for the Special Support Grant;

The support available for ITT courses starting on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years will depend on whether it is undertaken on a full-time or part-time basis. The Assembly Learning Grant and Special Support Grant are fully means-tested for all students who start their studies on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years.

Students who start a part-time course of ITT on or after 1 September 2010 including the flexible provision provided by the Open University in Wales are eligible for the standard part-time student support package set out at section H (part-time support).

TABLE D5 – HOUSEHOLD CONTRIBUTION SCALE

Table D5 sets out the assessed household contribution that continuing full-time 2010/11 cohort students will be assessed for in 2013/14, for illustrative levels of household income.

For details of other loan and grant support that is available to full-time new entrants, see section G.

SECTION E: SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO FULL-TIME STUDENTS WHO WILL BE CONTINUING NEW SYSTEM STUDENTS IN 2013/14

Note: This section applies to full time students who started higher education courses in academic years 2006/07, 2007/08, 2008/09 and 2009/10 and those eligible gap year students who started courses in academic year 2010/11 (together to be known as “new system students”).

E1: SUPPORT FOR FEES

The level of fee which full-time new system students who will be continuing students in higher education in 2013/14 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study.

New system students who normally live in Wales and are studying in Wales, may be eligible to apply for a non means-tested fee grant of up to £2,085 a year, for the duration of their course – which does not have to be repaid.

New system students who normally live in Wales and study at an English university or college that are charging variable tuition fees, will be able to take out a non-income assessed tuition fee loan of up to £3,465 to cover some or all of those fees (depending on how much they are charged and how much they wish to borrow). New system students who normally live in Wales and study at an institution in Northern Ireland which is charging variable tuition fees, will be able to take out a non-income assessed tuition fee loan of up to £3,575 to cover some or all of their fees (depending on how much they are charged and how much they wish to borrow). For students who normally live in Wales and are studying at an English or Northern Ireland university or college that is not charging variable tuition fees, the tuition fee chargeable could be any amount up to a maximum of £1,380 and £1,425 respectively and students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Students who normally live in Wales and study in Scotland will be charged £1,820 a year for most courses, except medicine where the fee is £2,895 a year. The charges will apply to all four years of Scottish degree courses. Students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Maximum Fee Support in Special Cases

The maximum tuition fee support available will be reduced in relation to certain courses, including sandwich courses where a student spends a significant amount of time away from their institution and courses provided in conjunction with overseas institutions where a student spends a significant amount of time abroad.

New system students who normally live in Wales and study such courses in Wales may be eligible to apply for a non means-tested fee grant of up to £1,045. This grant does not have to be repaid. In addition they can apply for a non-means tested fee loan of up to £680. New system students who normally live in Wales and study such courses in England will be eligible to apply for a non-means tested fee loan of up to £1,725, whereas students studying such courses in Northern Ireland will be eligible to apply for a non-means tested fee loan of up to £1,780, and £640* where the student attends an institution in Scotland.. The level of this fee loan will vary according to the tuition fee charged in relation to these specific courses.

*This figure may be subject to change.

E2: SUPPORT FOR LIVING COSTS

In addition to the fee loan, continuing full-time new system students will be able to apply for:

- (1) A means-tested Assembly Learning Grant for living costs of up to £3,000;
- (2) A means-tested bursary. Students with a household income of £18,370 or less, who are attending a university or college in Wales could apply for a minimum bursary of £347 from their institution. Students who are eligible for the full £3,000 Assembly Learning Grant or Special Support Grant for living costs, who are attending a university or college in Northern Ireland, and who are being charged the maximum £3,575 fee, may be entitled to a minimum bursary of £358 from their institution.
- (3) The basic student loan shown in Section A, 75% of which will not be subject to income assessment.
- (4) Certain students will be eligible for a Special Support Grant instead of the Assembly Learning Grant for living costs. These students include those who (a) have dependent children and do not have a partner; (b) have dependent children and their partner is also a full-time student; or (c) are eligible for certain specified disability benefits.
- (5) For students who are continuing on courses of initial teacher training (“ITT”), the maximum amount of Assembly Learning Grant for living costs (or, where appropriate, the Special Support Grant) available to them will depend upon the number of weeks of full-time study that they are required to attend in the year.

For students who study ITT courses full time for between 6 to 10 weeks a year, the first £664 of the Assembly Learning Grant for living costs is non-means tested. For students who study ITT courses full time for over 10 weeks a year, the first £1,329 of the Assembly Learning Grant for living costs is non-means tested. Students continuing on part-time courses of ITT which began before 1 September 2010 and require less than 6 weeks in aggregate of full-time study in the academic year will not be eligible for any Assembly Learning Grant for living costs or Special Support Grant and will only be eligible for the non-means tested reduced rate of loan shown in table A1.

For Type 1 ITT students, the grant will be half the corresponding amount that students on Type 2 ITT courses are entitled to (see Table E5). This means that all Type 1 ITT students will be eligible for £664 grant for living costs irrespective of their income. Those with incomes below £27,852 will be means-tested to receive an additional £836; this will be reduced by £1 for every £11.34 of income above £18,370 and below £27,852.

(*) The amount of loan for which students are eligible will be reduced by £1 for every £1 of grant to which they are entitled, up to a maximum of £1,329.

Where the income exceeds £39,778, students remain entitled to the non means-tested grant of £664, and the amount of loan to which they are entitled is reduced by £664 plus £1 for every complete £8.97 by which the income exceeds £39,778. This continues up to the point where the total non means-tested grant and loan support is 75% of the full maintenance loan. This point is indicated by (+) in the table above.

Full-time students who started courses in 2005/06 or earlier in England will continue to be charged up to £1,380 in 2013/14. The same category of students studying in Northern Ireland (“old system students”) will be liable for a tuition fee of up to £1,425 in 2013/14. They will be able to apply for a means-tested grant for fees of up to £1,380 and £1,425 respectively and a non-means tested fee loan to match a student’s assessed fee contribution. This loan is to be repaid once the old system student has graduated.

Maximum Fee Support in Special Cases

The maximum tuition fees payable in the following special cases will be as follows:

- a. Courses, including sandwich courses, at publicly funded institutions where a student spends a significant time during the year away from his or her institution (i.e. where periods of full-time study are in aggregate less than 10 weeks) will be £680 in England or £700 in Northern Ireland..
- b. Courses of continuing initial teacher training at publicly funded institutions: £680 in England or £700 in Northern Ireland unless the course is partly full-time and the periods of full-time study aggregate to more than 10 weeks in the relevant year.
- c. Courses at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama: £5,030.
- d. Courses at Heythrop College: £2,465.

*Old system students attending courses at Guildhall School of Music and Drama and Heythrop will not be eligible for a fee contribution loan.

(2) Students attending courses at privately funded institutions

The fee support arrangements for old system students continuing courses at privately funded institutions into 2013/14 remain unchanged. They will be eligible for non means-tested grants for fees, but not for fee contribution loans, at the following rates:

- a. Courses at the University of Buckingham: £3,275;
- b. Courses at any other privately funded institution: £1,285.

F2: THE HIGHER EDUCATION GRANT

This is a grant of up to £1,000 available to old system students who began courses in academic years 2004/05 and 2005/06. In 2013/14, continuing full-time old system students who have a household income of £16,765 or less are eligible for the maximum grant. Students who have a household income of more than £16,765 but less than £22,750 are eligible for £1 less than the maximum grant for each complete £6.30 by which their household income exceeds £16,765, subject to a minimum grant of £50. Where the household income exceeds £22,750, no grant is payable.

The level of fee which full-time distance learner students who will be new entrants to higher education in 2012/13 or 2013/14 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study. These students will also be eligible to apply for a non means-tested fee grant of up to £5,425 to cover the difference between the maximum £3,575 fee loan and the actual fee charged by the University or College (up to a maximum of £9,000). The non-means tested fee grant does not have to be repaid.

Full-time distance learner students who will be 2012/13 cohort students in higher education in 2013/14 studying specifically designated courses at private institutions within the UK will have access to a non means-tested fee loan of up to £6,000 to cover all or part of the costs of their tuition fee.
