Welsh Form - Pages 11-20
Ffurflen Gymraeg - Tudalennau 11-20

What do I need to do to get Disabled Students' Allowance (DSA)?

Here is a summary of the steps involved in applying for and receiving DSA.

1. Apply for DSA

Fill out all sections in this form and send it back with all the evidence we've asked for. The sooner we receive your form and evidence - the quicker we'll be able to tell you if you could get DSA.

Make sure you sign and date the terms and conditions.

2. Find out exactly what equipment and support you need

If you're able to get DSA, you may need to have a study needs assessment. This will make sure you get the right support to help you complete your course. If you need to have an assessment, we'll send you a letter to tell you how to do this. The needs assessor will want to see a copy of your disability evidence before the assessment.

If you have a study needs assessment, we'll get a report recommending what support and equipment you'll need. It will also let us know how much it will cost and who can provide it. You'll receive a copy of this report. We'll look at the recommendations and make our final decision.

3. Get your equipment and support

We'll send you a DSA entitlement letter to tell you what equipment and other support you'll get DSA for. The letter will also tell you how to get your support. Don't buy equipment or arrange support before you get this letter. We won't be able to refund these costs back to you.

Please do not continue with this application.

You should contact the provider of your bursary for advice on any extra support you may be entitled to because of a disability, long-term health condition, mental health condition, specific learning difficulty or autism spectrum disorder.

Section 3 - DSA information and evidence

Your disability, long-term health condition, mental health condition, specific learning difficulty or autism spectrum disorder

You are defined as having a disability under the Equality Act 2010 if you have a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse affect on your ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

Please give full details and provide evidence of your disability, long-term health condition, mental health condition, specific learning difficulty or autism spectrum disorder.

Disability, long-term health condition or mental health condition

For each disability or health condition you have, send us a written statement or letter from a doctor or appropriate qualified medical professional which confirms the long term effects your disability or health condition has on your ability to carry out day-to-day activities including education.

Specific learning difficulty (such as dyslexia)

For each specific learning difficulty (SpLD) you have, send us a diagnostic report written in accordance with the 2005 SpLD Working Group Guidelines from one of the following:

- A practitioner psychologist
- A suitably qualified specialist teacher holding a SpLD Assessment Practicing Certificate

Autism spectrum disorder

Send us one of the following:

- A Statement of Special Educational Needs (SEN) from a Local Authority
- An Educational Health Care Plan
- A written statement or letter from a doctor or appropriate qualified medical professional which confirms the long term effects your disorder has on your ability to carry out day to day activities including education

It is your responsibility to pay any costs to obtain the required evidence.
